Dear Tommie:

Such a lovely and thoughtful gift was the baby spoon that came with the surprise box from all of you sweet friends. It was dear of you to send such a useful and enduring — as well as beautiful gift.

we will use it often and think of you each time we use it. I'm sure little "Miller" would want me to thank you for him (or her) too.

How I wish I could have been with you girls at the party. It was quite a disappointment not to be able to go west and see all
our friends this spring, but of course it <sup>was</sup> <sup>an</sup> impossible with important event like the one which we are anticipating in the offing.

I've been feeling exceptionally well all of the time; - so I'm sure all will be well from now on. It has been so much fun getting the nursery furnished and a wardrobe organized for our baby.

I'm interested in hearing what you are doing

these days and how life is treating you. Do write and tell me. If you ever have the opportunity to come East, by all means plan to stop and see us.

Until we meet again then, the best of luck to you — and thanks again for the lovely gift — also the superb handiwork on "inmentionable". Love,
Dorothy
