Dear Mr. Takahashi:

Your application for a position as instructor at the Navy Language School has been forwarded to me by Mr. Ernst. We greatly appreciate your interest in this project.

Your qualifications are very interesting, and we are placing your application in our reserve file. At the present time we are not in a position to avail ourselves of your services, but you may be sure that if, in the future, a vacancy should appear on our staff which we feel you might fill, we will let you know.

Sincerely yours,

Florence Walne
Director

W:P

P.S. We would appreciate your filling out the enclosed formal application form and returning it to this office at your convenience.
