Dear Madam:

The Commanding General has directed me to supplement letter to you from Headquarters Western Defense Command dated 28 October 1944 and acknowledge receipt of telegram dated 4 November 1944 from Project Director, Central Utah Relocation Center concerning your request for permission to travel to San Francisco, California.

You are advised that your request has been approved and travel permit No. 8913 is inclosed herewith. Your attention is invited to all the terms and conditions thereto, including the requirement that it be returned to Headquarters Western Defense Command, attention Civil Affairs Division, for cancellation upon expiration.

Mrs. Marian Steffen has requested that you be advised to meet her at the Riverside Hotel, Reno, Nevada on Friday, 10 November 1944 at which time she will escort you to San Francisco, California.

Very truly yours,

J. A. Romanczuk
J. A. ROMANCZUK,
Major, A. G. D.,
