

1 Seki Tokushu Riki - came - Pres. Mr. Kubo (elder) 4pc sample to be airmailed today or tomorrow - chrome plated modern pieces - actually in stock about 2,000 sets - may be ordered separately or as set. Prices marked. Please give it a good think. They are people making Fraser's "Line" knife fork spoon line of stainless - do a good job of making, + are nice people - all handmade - have big factory in Seki City. ~~Left~~ - someplace visited on one Sunday aft. where young Kubo treated me very well.

2/ Large set cherry wood carving set with heavy feeling of brass trim and feeling of hunter's set - masculine - sells at high fashion price - like Esquire, Town & Country, Country Gentleman, etc Fortune Magazine - elite, loaded clientele - too heavy so will take home in baggage - $8.00/each letter for monogram or blade if wished.

3/ They make the SILDUN steak knife in sheath which Jan Howell was anxious about - do you want it reproduced exactly? in other words, continue making for us? We have to use our name on blade so what wood or name do you want? TAKAHASHI JAPAN - I think on TAKAHASHI JAPAN

4/ Regarding cutting blade on wrong side of curve - did it on purpose to prevent knuckles of ~~upper~~ ^{upper} getting into gravy etc. so not to get too close to plate, better angle.

5/ Better put it to actual test and see
I saw 4 men individually today whose items did not fit our needs - so I referred them elsewhere or had them leave. They come from so far with their screens, etc makes me feel sorry but I can't waste time with bamboo standing screens already 5 yrs out of date - you know the kind - Mr. Gami wanted - + what furniture stores use for display or divide their floor space.

Seki Tokushu Riki already started putting your new blade length onto new handle size - I really think blade length should be longer than sample I air-shipped - but am still of opinion that handle should be adequate for big hands of big men of America - 12/12

X is X's - will write again soon - and coming home when? Hope to do the shows with you people to get reaction on the new items - DID YOU GET SOME SMALL
