Dear Tami -

It is a profound shock, and I am so very saddened to learn today of Ken's passing.
The hardest thing we have to face in life, I think, is losing someone we love, and I send my deepest sympathy to your family, and to you, who will, of course, miss him the most. Such a dear, gentle man - we shall all miss his quiet presence.

I send my sincere condolences -

Barbara Bunting
