

MRS. ROBERT VAN ORMAN EVANS

Dear Tami,

I am heartbroken at the news of Henri's death. I cannot say I know what you must be going through; I cannot even guess. You and Henri were together for so many years, you went through such impossibly difficult times together, and together you created and nurtured such a great and successful business.... well, to be alone after all this must be shockingly sad.

What I do know is that getting over something like this is never a steady, upward progress. It will not be easy, but you are a strong, determined woman, Tami. And here at the Towers you are surrounded by people who admire and respect you.

My love to you,
Virginia Evans
