Dearest Tomoye Neisen,

I received your air mail two days ~~ago~~^{ago}, but couldn't write 'till today.

I'm very sorry for your father who was so nice and kind to everyone.

Miyoko Obasen said "Goroshiku" to you since she has been (and still is) busy, so as all of us, and couldn't write to you. I don't think you know that Hisamitsu Ojisan stand as a candidate this month ~~and~~ we have to work hard to win.
Anyway we are keeping ourselves busy every day
'til end of this month, hoping to get win.

Well, for your request, I'm glad to help even a little since I'm doing nothing except looking for a man (a future husband).

But one thing I would like you to understand is that ~~if~~ I ^{might} ask you for a free time for ~~myself~~ ^{in case} of a proposal of marriage ~~if~~ if there's anything like that.

Right now I do not have any plan on May 6, so please tell me where I should be to meet you.

I met Kazuhiko the other day and say he said he ~~was~~ going to write you telling he would be an assistant or whatever he will be, so maybe you have already heard from him. I don't know much about him except he is going to school and is working at part time by teaching at a couple places.

Well, I don't have much time right now since I have to help in the kitchen to make supper for people who are working, helping for Hisamitsu Ogawa during an election.

Please understand my poor English.

My regards to everyone.

Sincerely,
Taiko
