Dear Tommy: -

Please forgive my negligence in not writing you.

I am in a rather upset state of mind and along with it have been quite ill. I am feeling better (physically) now but we have grief in the family - Mrs. Passon's dear sweet mother who you often heard me speak of has passed away. Her illness took Mrs. Passon to her bedside 10 days ago, and we are all very much upset over it.

After I am all rested and my duties are lighter I promise to write you a nice long letter and get back to my lessons.

I have met some Japanese people who run a vegetable & fruit market here - and I have used what you taught me in shopping. They told me I'm doing alright. Love ann
