

Dear Henri Family

Dec. 31, 1961

Shinnen Omedito Gozaimasu. Did you have a Happy and Merry X/ys Christmas ?

We had a very good Christmas here. 1962 will be the best and KINEN year for me and your mother. We will have four KINENKai for us. Fifty years wedding, Fifty years christian life, fifty years of my ordination, and our KIJYU-seventy seven years of my age. For this occasion,
I should like to write some thing about my life and work.

It will cost ^{me} about $400⁰ for publi^{cation}

Would you mind thinking of it and help me to do it? But I don't like to ask you MURENI SHITE ITADAKUYO NI NEGAITAKUNAI"
Because this is rather my private plan for my old age.

This is something like my dream for next year. I retired from universities (where I used to teach until last year) last fall but still am working for my church here in Dairi. Because I can't stay at the universities on account of my old age.

I can do my church ~~work~~ / a few years more.

How about your boy and girl? Do they enjoy their school work?
How about your work? Is every thing going well with you? May the Lord bless you and your work. Your kindness and assistance be greatly appreciated. Sayonara,

from your father
