

Dearest Genie Norman,

Oaks Hill Suite

Wow - it's hot - and tomorrow morning early I go to Tokyo to visit Ritsuke San + Mariko.
I sure hope the 'special' turned on the conditioner.
The cooler wasn't turned on before.

I haven't seen nor heard of Charlie beyond that he checked in at the AIRPORT HOTEL Sunday nite by telephone message, while we were out for dinner, Yasumi + me. He also made his own arrangements for Hotel in Hong Kong at the Hilton.
Hope he gets back per arrangement + schedule to the Imperial Hotel tomorrow night.

I'm going to Tokyo on 8:40 AM Tokaido train because Yasumi San of Nagoya will be there too + I want to share in the work, + hear what goes on, also what they found out about SUGAR CUBES.

Meantime I found out also the name + address of the SOAP maker that Jack + I spotted. I had the girl take out + unwrap every cake of soap of the wrappers Yasumi + I liked + bought some. Isn't that nerve?

Every importer has investigated + brought in Soap of every country; so should Japan, since there is good soap here.

Maybe we'll be back by the time you get this, but Ritsuke San + I are going back May 7th + will arr 10:30 from Wyo. We leave 5:20 PM (7th) here on a non-stop JAL acc to R's reservation.

I'm shipping excess baggage to Captain State Lines to Norman Lee on our side.

I'm sure enjoying TV here. I have it on, all the time I'm in the room in the AM + late night.

Very warm every day. We found some things in browsing around the dept. stores. I found a nylon ball of net I like, for the bath, and maybe we can revise the 'lequer' trade for bath room use. The ball is a scrubber.

Seems like Teddy Elston's pictures should be confined to a small shop that noone knows about.

Rex May's cable car looks exactly like the original & is simply adorable - the freight & original costs are a problem and R+I decided 12:30 at night that we should NEST them & sell 2 sizes priced so that each sells the other & confine it to only OUR OWN stores & make a good mark-up - bec. we have to pay Rex May his royalty of 5% incost. to be paid forever - many years. It was worth it, staying up late over it.
