Paris.

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Takahashi:

I am sorry that I opened your letter which was delivered to me a few days ago. My name is also the same as yours and the addressee of this letter, and am working for the American Embassy, Paris (Visa Section). It seemed to me that there must be another TAKAHASHI in this Embassy but I could not locate this person. So, I must return your letter to you with this little note. If you have known ~~the~~ more detailed address of her office, please write again. Or if you do not know her whereabouts, please ~~to~~ inform me more details about her. Then I'll try to locate her and pass your message to her.

With my personal regards,

Mrs. Kim Takahashi

My office address is:
