Dear Folks -

Got caught in an awful snow storm in the mountains all night so we are behind schedule. It started to rain in S L City last night when we left there at 2:15 AM & we should have pulled out at 1:30 AM. We stayed in a hotel when we found out there was no room on the 8:15, but couldn't sleep much. Helen treated us to dinner. Every time I see a baby & each time I try to sleep, awake or asleep I think of Pinky & miss her so much. Once we skidded into a shoulder & driver lost control of the bus in the sleet when ice covered the road & it was running like a river. Women screamed & one in front of me grabbed her boy to her breast. I nearly cried afterwards to think I might have left P. an orphan. Roads & weather are OK now.
