All pupils have daily assignments. These demand HOME STUDY. Serious purpose and regular study time are necessary to maintain good standing. Co-operation of parents is indispensable in carrying out the home study program. Low grades usually indicate need for more attention to home study.

To the Parent or Guardian:

In addition to scholarship the grades given aim to take account of progress, application, and earnestness. They signify:

- A. Excellent.
- B. Good.
- C. Fair.
- D. Barely Passed.
- Inc. Incomplete.
- F. Failure.

As to Final Grades:

A and B are the only grades assuring recommendation to college or university, all other conditions having been satisfied.

C very often indicates that more earnest application is desirable.

D, the minimum for promotion, nearly always indicates interrupted work or serious neglect.

Inc. (Incomplete) indicates that further work of satisfactory character must be done in order to secure any promotion credit.

F indicates complete lack of progress, nearly always the result of known or continued neglect.

Parents are urged to give immediate attention to every deficient or low mark and to consult with the Principal or Dean.

Earnest purpose, conscientious study, and regular habits are essential to progress and interest.
