

Dear Mrs. Takahashi,

July 14/54

I don't know how to express my feeling for your departure, I, however, hope that I am able to meet you either in America or Japan in the very near future.

Here, I would like to tell you again that how much I feel sorry that I have not been able to help you at all during your stay in Japan, & how much I enjoyed meeting you & thanked your kindness. I shall never forget you & your friendship & hope that I could repay all what you've done to me in one way or the other. Thanks you very very much, Mrs. Takahashi !!!

Will pray that everything will be just wonderful with you.

Bon Voyage & safe return.

Hoping to see you soon,

Love,

Nora

P.S.

Please extend my sincerest regards to Mrs Takahashi.

Thank you.

Sincerely yours,

Nobuko

P.S.

I wish you like the hand bag
my mother brings to you to day,
which I ordered especially for you using the old Chinese material.
