

Here are Comps
on Mrs. Takahashi's
Publicity - Sent to SF
Japanese, 3 SF dailies, Tribes,
SF Progress + Little City News +
Herb Caen's column.
Merrill

FROM: American Region News Bureau
JAPAN AIR LINES
240 Stockton Street
San Francisco, California 94108
YU 2-7343, ext.256

For Immediate Release

ORIENT "CAMP" TRIP FOR GHIRARDELLI OPENING -- Mrs. Tami Takahashi, owner of the well-known Japanese accessory shop, Takahashi Main Street at 25 Main here, took off via Japan Air Lines May 15 to shop for unusual gift items for a new shop which she will open at Ghirardelli Square in mid-June. According to Mrs. Takahashi, ^{シロイロ 5011} "My new shop will have a flair such as no other in this city. Everything will be really camp, way out. We'll have nothing ordinary or common". She mentioned that among the personal and home accessory items she will purchase will be silk and chiffon fashions, precious gems, lacquerware, scented soaps and exotic colognes. She shows to Seiji Kobara, JAL representative, one of the decorative items for the home that she will purchase. She will shop in Japan, Korea, Hong Kong and Thailand.

(Japan Air Lines Photo)

5/17/65

#

小
原
静
齋

JAPAN AIR LINES

SEIJI KOBARA

SALES REPRESENTATIVE
SAN FRANCISCO
DISTRICT SALES OFFICE

150 POWELL AT O'FARRELL
SAN FRANCISCO, CALIF. 94102
TEL: YUKON 2-7343

FLIGHT
JAL INFORMATION

TAKAHASHI
Main Street
SAN FRANCISCO