The Manager,
Takahashi Trading Co., San Francisco.

Tokyo, 11th October, 1954.

Dear Sir,

Kindly excuse the liberty we take in addressing you with a view to establishing a direct connection with your firm.

As introduced some days ago by Mr. Shosaku Asano, pastor of Japanese Church in Monterey, Calif., father of my wife, I run a Trading Company in Tokyo.

Articles exported by us so far are Table Wares, Accessories, Fancy Goods, Various Toys, Japanese Gelatine and general merchandises, and upon request, we are ready ^{/to} handle any kind of goods. We have an account with the Mercantile Bank of India, Ltd. which is a British Bank in Tokyo.

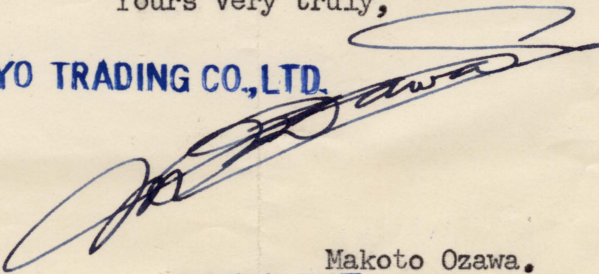

If we are fortunate enough to have business connections with your firm, we will do all we can in fulfilling your requests and following your directions. Our motto is "Lowest Cost, Best Quality, Promptness in Manufacturing and Shipping". At your request, any samples, catalogues and their Price Lists will be sent right away.

I beg you for your good understandings and your kind assistances.

Trusting to be favoured with a share of orders, ^{/your} which, we assure you, shall have our best and prompt attention, and thanking you in advance for your favourable answer and your good news to us, I am,

Yours very truly,

SHIN-TOKYO TRADING CO., LTD.
