

- We -

① Father - age 64 - laundry business - gave power of attorney Frank T. Redbal, sold while gone - ~~tho.~~ before return - no other work - suffered <sup>cardiac</sup> strokes in <sup>WKA</sup> <sup>Wah</sup> <sup>this was due</sup> <sup>to</sup> <sup>faili</sup> high blood pressure, aggravated by ~~excessive~~ <sup>mountain</sup> health ~~and~~ high <sup>altitude</sup> hardships & worry, now paralyzed back, & frail health: unable to work. At present he supports us.

② Husband - for news editor ~~before Evac.~~ - no newspaper work <sup>available to him</sup> ~~now~~ due to public feeling against ~~us~~ <sup>Japanese</sup> blood. ~~During~~ <sup>period of</sup> ~~Project~~ residence in WPA centers, work exp.

consisted of handling pub. relations press releases, organizing & heading <sup>of</sup> the ~~Center~~ Project Reports Section, org. & heading ~~Historical~~ <sup>Historical</sup> Dept., and org. <sup>managing</sup> & ~~editing~~ <sup>editing</sup> the ~~sole~~ Center newspaper, "Topaz Times" ~~Present loss of~~

While still in Center applied for position with Off of War Info in editorial capacity, which was pending but never materialized due to <sup>coming of</sup> VJ Day - subsequent decreasing of personnel employed.

joined misc. workers' union AFL in SF and worked 2 mo. at Fred Solari's grill in Maiden Lane, S.F. <sup>at 36.50 wk</sup> but resigned to ~~take~~ care for family when second child was born. There was no other help ~~for~~ available to see to meals, laundering, house work and care of ~~wife~~ <sup>myself</sup> & ~~children~~ <sup>babies</sup>. Altho' at the time of his resignation from Solari's grill the employers expressed regret at his leaving & asked that he return to his duties, there was no opening available a few months later. News sent to his union local to Rainbow Sandwich Grill on Market St. My ~~looked~~ <sup>looked</sup> surprised to see him on ~~street~~ <sup>street</sup>, ~~who~~ told him at the end of the 1st day that a former dishwasher was returning to duty & that they were leaving but the job was terminated.

