ATTENTION: Mr. Henri Takahashi

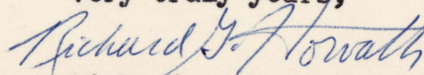

Dear Sir:

We are planning the launching of a mail order sales campaign. Knowing you deal in Japanese novelties and gifts, we would like to examine the possibilities of including your products in our mail order operation.

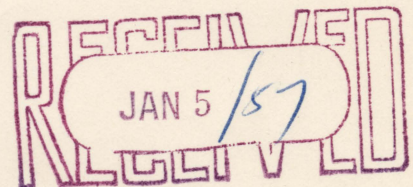

If you would send all available literature, pamphlets and pictures of your products we would be very pleased.

Hoping this inquiry proves to be of mutual benefit in the future, I am,

Very truly yours,

Richard G. Horvath
