Dear Miss Doherty,

What fun to go together on a trip to Japan!
I am so pleased to hear from you. I plan to leave on March 25 by air from San Francisco, and the group will return April 16 by plane or boat, with stop-over in Honolulu if you wish it, or to go on to HongKong with a few, or to stay on in Japan for a while longer as I will do.

I think the cost will be about $350 or so, tho
I have no definite confirmation from Japan. I think that after writing this letter I will send a letter to a friend to get more details for me on many points. Because it is so far away, there will be changes and additions to be made on my enclosed schedule, but I hope you will write me upon reading it, what you would like to do and foods you are fond of, and those you do not like, and maybe something about yourself that will help me make out a tailor-made trip to suit our group.

The group cannot be very large for it will not be good then, and will be planned to really get to know the people and be close to them. Will you write me soon?

Cordially,

Cordially,

AN INVITATION TO JAPAN

I'll be off again on my annual shopping trip to Japan the last week of March.

Would you like to go with me? It won't be the usual tourist's tour, as there will be visits with architects to see houses, interiors, and gardens--also teas with artists in their studios--plus shopping in wholesale houses for decorative accessories and fabrics.

Many scenic spots will be visited. Of course we'll see Frank Lloyd Wright's Imperial Hotel as well as a geisha pageant in Kyoto, a Takarazuka revue, and the famed Kabuki Drama in Tokyo. To feel close to the people (and save our pennies) we plan to stay in Japanese inns and ride their transportation as much as possible.

We will fly over by Pan-American plane and the return trip can be a choice of boat or plane, or a combination with change-over at Honolulu--or return by plane via Alaska and Seattle.

If you can go for two or more weeks, please drop me a line, and I'll send you my plans and the cost. Remember the Travel Plan takes only 10% down with 10 months or longer to pay.

The group will be kept small as it is my private party for men and women of similar interests with plans for the most fun and the least cost.

Cordially,

TAMI TAKAHASHI
(Mrs. Henri H.)
