Dear Mr. Arai:

The center was officially closed October 23 and we still have property under your name which we must dispose of.

In accordance with the instructions we received from Washington, this letter is to advise you that unless we hear from you to the contrary within 15 days your property will be shipped to the above address. If it is not correct, please advise so that you will have no difficulty in obtaining your property.

Your immediate attention is requested.

Very truly yours
