Appointed

Hayward resident Kimi Fujii last night became the first woman appointed to the AC Transit board of directors. She will complete the unexpired term of the late E. Guy Warren after her swearing in on April 12. The term expires in 1974. Miss Fujii, a Japanese - American, has been active in projects to aid the unemployed, low-income groups and Spanish-speaking people since graduation from the University of Wisconsin in 1947. She has been a member of the Hayward Human Relations Commission for the past eight years. The Fujii family operates wholesale and retail flower outlets.
