

Apr. 5, 1972

Dear Kevin,

My brother Herb sent me this clipping in the Oakland Tribune, & I saw the other in Sunday's EXAMINER.

Congratulations! We're all proud of you.

Take care. Hope all's well.

Please excuse this hurried note...

I'm at work.

Love,
Lorraine

5 Oakland  Tribune
Fri., March 24, 1972

Transit Board Post

Kimi Fujii of Hayward has been named to succeed the late E. Guy Warren as a director of the Alameda-Contra Costa Transit District. Miss Fujii, affiliated with a family florist firm, has been active in Hayward area civic affairs.

Hayward Florist To AC Transit

Appointment of Kimi Fujii, member of a family florist firm in Hayward, as a director of the Alameda-

Contra Costa Transit District to succeed the late E. Guy Warren has been announced by the board.

The Church of Scientology was founded in 1954 in Washington by a former science fiction writer, L. Ron Hubbard.

The organization's national director of the Ministry of years — including one which included both the AMA and the NEA. If she can find 95 Scientology lawsuits in the United Kingdom, OK, the libel laws are different there."

PAULETTE COOPER
Seeks $15.4 million

☆☆☆ Section A Page 19
April 2, 1972
S. F. Sunday Examiner
& Chronicle

Kinsolving on Religion Panel

Associated Press religion editor George Cornell and the Examiner's nationally-syndicated religion writer Rev. Lester Kinsolving are the two religion columnists chosen for a panel on religion column writing at the convention of the Religion News Writers Association (RNA) at its convention in Atlanta on April 15.

AFTER FIVE DAYS RETURN TO

KAWAMOTO

BELVEDERE - TIBURON, CALIFORNIA 94920

Miss Kimi Fujita

Hayward, Ca. 94544