

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN
MADISON, WISCONSIN

November 28, 1960

Dear Grandma and Grandpa,

Your cookies were delicious - Everybody liked them very much. I had to hide them from my room mate because she liked them so much and she is on a diet. Thank you so much.

I am going to spend Thanksgiving with the Yamamoto's. They are really very nice.

It is getting colder here and it will snow soon - I think. Last night I ate dinner with Phileo Nash's daughter, Sally, and then we went folk dancing. Sally is a beautiful dancer and is now teaching modern dance to 3-year old kids. She seems to be an excellent teacher. We all had a good time.

Well I have to study for an exam

now so we have to stop writing.

Thanks again for the delicious
cookies -

Love

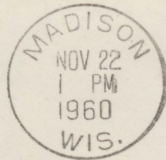

Weki

P.S. School is okay - not that hard ^{in work} but harder to get

A's -

Will write again.

[redacted]
26 Wisconsin
Madison 10, Wis

Mr. and Mrs. R. Feiji

Hayward, California

