

Alien Assets ^{9/19/55} Hearings Set J. C.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18 (AP).— Sen. Olin D. Johnston (Dem., S. C.), announced over the weekend that hearings will start Sept. 29 on bills involving $500 million worth of alien property seized by the Government during World Wars I and II.

The hearings will be conducted by a Judiciary Subcommittee on the Trading With the Enemy Act, which Senator Johnston heads.

Dulles to Testify

Senator Johnston said witnesses invited are Secretary of State Dulles, Attorney General Brownell, Budget Director Rowland R. Hughes and Whitney Gilliland, chairman of the War Claims Commission. Interested parties will be given an opportunity to testify if they notify the subcommittee, he added.

Senator Johnston said the initial series of hearings will concentrate on two bills.

One would authorize the Attorney General to dispose of remaining properties seized in World War I. The other would confer jurisdiction on the Office of Alien Property in the Justice Department for final decision on certain types of claims and bar judicial review of its findings.

Hearings on other measures will be set later this Fall. ~

Alien Assets ^{9/19/55} Hearings Set ^{J.C.}

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18 (AP).— Sen. Olin D. Johnston (Dem., S. C.), announced over the weekend that hearings will start Sept. 29 on bills involving $500 million worth of alien property seized by the Government during World Wars I and II.

The hearings will be conducted by a Judiciary Subcommittee on the Trading With the Enemy Act, which Senator Johnston heads.

Dulles to Testify

Senator Johnston said witnesses invited are Secretary of State Dulles, Attorney General Brownell, Budget Director Rowland R. Hughes and Whitney Gilliland, chairman of the War Claims Commission. Interested parties will be given an opportunity to testify if they notify the subcommittee, he added.

Senator Johnston said the initial series of hearings will concentrate on two bills.

One would authorize the Attorney General to dispose of remaining properties seized in World War I. The other would confer jurisdiction on the Office of Alien Property in the Justice Department for final decision on certain types of claims and bar judicial review of its findings.

Hearings on other measures will be set later this Fall.

Alien Assets ^{9/19/53} Hearings Set ^{J.C.}

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18 (AP).— Sen. Olin D. Johnston (Dem., S. C.), announced over the weekend that hearings will start Sept. 29 on bills involving $500 million worth of alien property seized by the Government during World Wars I and II.

The hearings will be conducted by a Judiciary Subcommittee on the Trading With the Enemy Act, which Senator Johnston heads.

Dulles to Testify

Senator Johnston said witnesses invited are Secretary of State Dulles, Attorney General Brownell, Budget Director Rowland R. Hughes and Whitney Gilliland, chairman of the War Claims Commission. Interested parties will be given an opportunity to testify if they notify the subcommittee, he added.

Senator Johnston said the initial series of hearings will concentrate on two bills.

One would authorize the Attorney General to dispose of remaining properties seized in World War I. The other would confer jurisdiction on the Office of Alien Property in the Justice Department for final decision on certain types of claims and bar judicial review of its findings.

Hearings on other measures will be set later this Fall.

40,

September 22, 1955
362 Riverside Dr., Apt. 7C
New York 25, N. Y.

Mr. Oliver Stone
1025 Vermont Avenue, N. W.
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Stone:

Thank you very much for your letter of 20 September. I agree with you completely in that you gave Nakata a chance to answer your draft until this month. It seems however there is nothing more we can do about his claim and it is appropriate for us to file the original of your memorandum to the Justice of Department. According to your instruction I had the notary public signed the original, which is being forwarded to you in this envelope.

I read the interesting article in the Journal of Commerce dated September 19 on the alien assets hearings. It says that Sen. Olin D. Johnston announced that hearings will start September 29 on bills involving $500 million worth of alien property seized by the Government during W. W. I & II. I enclose the copy of the article for your reference in case you have not read it.

I am looking forward to see you in the very near future in Washington.

Thanking you again for your kind cooperation,
I remain.

Sincerely yours,

LM
enclosure

Lawrence Miwa

Alien Assets 9/19/55 Hearings Set J.C.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18 (AP).— Sen. Olin D. Johnston (Dem., S. C.), announced over the weekend that hearings will start Sept. 29 on bills involving $500 million worth of alien property seized by the Government during World Wars I and II.

The hearings will be conducted by a Judiciary Subcommittee on the Trading With the Enemy Act, which Senator Johnston heads.

Dulles to Testify

Senator Johnston said witnesses invited are Secretary of State Dulles, Attorney General Brownell, Budget Director Rowland R. Hughes and Whitney Gilliland, chairman of the War Claims Commission. Interested parties will be given an opportunity to testify if they notify the subcommittee, he added.

Senator Johnston said the initial series of hearings will concentrate on two bills.

One would authorize the Attorney General to dispose of remaining properties seized in World War I. The other would confer jurisdiction on the Office of Alien Property in the Justice Department for final decision on certain types of claims and bar judicial review of its findings.

Hearings on other measures will be set later this Fall.