Dearest Yuri and Wak:

I was terribly shocked to hear of your dear and beloved father's death. The short time I knew him made me feel as if I had known him a long time. He meant more than just a friend or acquaintance. Whenever he spoke to me, he told me something valuable and worthwhile to me, and was always kind to me, like his own daughter.

I was so glad to hear that he was home several weeks ago, and thought that he was ~~in~~ his normal healthy self again. Really it was a terrible shock to me.

My deepest sympathies are with you, wish I could be there with you. Try to be brave and feel sure that he is safe at home now with Him.

All my love & sympathy,
Emi
