Dear Wakako and Yui,

Just a brief note to extend my heartfelt sympathy in your days of sorrow. It was a shock to learn of your father's passing, for it was such a short time since I had been down to say I was leaving for Greeley; and he had seemed so well.

I am sorry that I could not have been nearer to have offered my small efforts in your bereavement. My thoughts me with you now in understanding.

Please convey to Sally and Kahn my sympathies.

Hoping that you are caring for yourself, I am

Most sincerely,
Missage
