Dear Yuni & Wat.

I just read today in the Pacific Citizen about the passing of your father - please accept Sox and my belated sympathy.

Sometimes I can't picture the Donato family without father - he was such a lot of fun. He lived a wonderfully full life and had the nicest family that he can well be proud of. I can still see him sitting in the rocking chair reading the paper with such a disturbed frown and me driving in to visit a while or go shopping at Safeway.

Yes, it must be hard to get used to not having his chair in our conversation, but knowing that he lived a happy and contented family life should make it easier.

Keep you chin up,

As ever
