DECISION COALITION
CALENDAR-1979

History of the Anti-Bakke Decision Coalition

The ABDC has its roots in the grass roots organizing activity that has taken place on campuses, communities, and workplaces throughout the last year and a half.

* In February, 1977, the Third World Coalition formed at U.C. Berkeley, San Francisco State, and Laney College in Oakland, marking the initial efforts to educate and organize people around the Bakke issue on these campuses. They later joined with other Asian Student Unions (ASU), Black Student Unions (BSU), MEChA's, and Third World Coalitions to form the Northern California United Students Against the Bakke Decision, spanning 15 campuses. The USABD organized a militant protest at the May 20th U.C. Regents' meeting in San Francisco. This demonstration exposed the U.C. Regents' collusion with Bakke and the courts.

* The Committee to Defeat Bakke in San Jose and the East L.A. Committee for Democratic Rights actively took up the Bakke struggle, staging demonstrations and programs in various communities and workplaces. Locals of the United Auto Workers, United Steel Workers Union, International Allied Moulders Union and others joined in the anti-Bakke movement.

* On May 7, 1977, over 1500 people participate in a mass demonstration in L.A. This action was organized by the statewide MEChA system, which had been playing an active and leading role in the anti-Bakke struggle the entire year. Following this May 7 demo, the MEChA's initiate a call for a statewide Bakke conference to plan for fall demonstrations.

* Responding to MEChA's call, over 80 organizations and 200 people came together on June 26, 1977 for form the ABDC, a single unified coalition. The ABDC's principles of unity were developed: 1) Rely on the masses of oppressed people to defeat the Bakke decision; 2) Oppose both the U.S. Supreme Court and the U.C. Regents as equal targets; 3) Oppose the systematic oppression of Third World people; and 4) Defend and expand all Third World programs, Affirmative Action programs, and all special programs for women and working people. The plans for the October 15 statewide mobilization are set. Local chapters of ABDC are set up in Sacramento/Davis; San Francisco/Oakland; San Jose; Fresno Valley; Oxnard/Ventura; and Los Angeles.

* October 15, the ABDC's statewide mobilization and National Day of Solidarity. Over 4000 people of all nationalities unite and converge on the SF Federal Building. Colorful banners and spirited chants bring out the message: Smash the Bakke Decision, End National Oppression, Full Equality for Women!

* February, 1978. Los Angeles: The National Anti-Bakke Conference is called by the ABDC. Over 650 people attend, with 200 organizations participating. New ABDC chapters are set up: New York, New England, Chicago, Atlanta. Plans are set for the National Week of Struggle/Semana de Lucha.

* May 6-13: Week of Struggle/Semana de Lucha. Activities and demonstrations occur across the country in protest of the impending Supreme Court decision.

* June 28, 1978: U.S. Supreme Court upholds the racist Bakke decision. Thousands across the U.S. demonstrate in opposition to the ruling.

* November 6-13, 1978: National Week of Resistance/Semana Nacional de Resistencia. Activities throughout the U.S. demanding: No Implementation of the Bakke Decision; Commemorate the Third World Strikes of the 60's; End National Oppression!

Los Angeles: ABDC National Conference, February, 1978. Over 650 people attended with 200 organizations represented. At this time, ABDC grew from a California statewide coalition to a nationwide coalition./ABDC Conferencia Nacional, Febrero, 1978. Mas de 650 personas asistieron con representacion de 200 organizaciones. En esta conferencia la ABDC crecio de una coalicion estatal a una coalicion nacional.
