Open Daily until nine in the evening for Rest, Meditation, and Prayer

The Master is Here and Calleth for Thee.

Prayer For The Church

O God, we pray for thy Church, which is set today amid the perplexities of a changing order, and face to face with a great new task. Baptize her afresh with the life-giving spirit of Jesus. Grant her a new birth, though it be with the travail of repentance and humiliation. Bestow upon her a more imperious responsiveness to duty, a swifter compassion with suffering, and an utter loyalty to the will of God. Put upon her lips the ancient gospel of her Lord. Help her to proclaim boldly the coming of the Kingdom of God and the doom of all that resist it. Fill her with the prophets' scorn of tyranny, and with a Christ-like tenderness for the heavy-laden and down-trodden. Give her faith to espouse the cause of the people, and in their hands that grope after freedom and light to recognize the bleeding hands of the Christ. Bid her cease from seeking her own life, lest she lose it. Make her valiant to give up her life to humanity, that like her crucified Lord she may mount by the path of the cross to a higher glory.

—Walter Rauschenbusch

"Seek ye the Lord while He may be found, call ye upon Him while He is near. Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the Lord, and He will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon."—Isaiah 55:6-7.

Morning Worship, Eleven o'clock

Organ Prelude { Stella Matutina Bonnet
Hymn—Prelude on "Toplady" Seth Bingham

Doxology

Invocation and Response

O come, let us sing unto the Lord: let us heartily rejoice in the strength of our salvation. For He is the Lord our God.

Hymn 461—"We praise Thee, O God"

Responsive Reading—Psalm 2 (Page 632)

Anthem—Summer Ended Charles Wood

Summer ended, harvest o'er,
Lord, to Thee, our song we pour,
For the valleys golden yield,
For the fruits of tree and field;
For the promise ever sure
That while heaven and earth endure,
Seed time, harvest, cold and heat,
Shall their yearly round complete.

For the care, which, while we slept,
Watch o'er field and furrow kept,
Watch o'er all the buried grain,
Soon to burst to life again;
When all earthly gifts must fail,
And our years have told their tale,
When in death our flesh is sown,
Watch, Lord Jesu, o'er Thine own.

When the unknown hour is come
And the last great harvest home,
And the reaping angels bring
Tares and wheat before the King;
When the tribes of earth shall weep,
And the goats shall leave the sheep,
Jesu, may we gathered be
In the heavenly barn to Thee.

Then the angel cry shall sound,
"Praise the Lamb, the lost are found;"
And the answering song shall be,
"Alleluia, Lord to Thee."
Praise to Thee, the toil is o'er;
Blight and curse shall be no more:
Lo! the mighty work is done!
Glory to the Three in one. Amen.

Scripture Lessons { Exodus 24:12-18 (Page 99)
St. Luke 12:37-54 (Page 1104)

Gloria Patri

Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth: And in Jesus Christ his only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy Catholic Church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Pastoral Prayer and Resonance

Offering

Prayer of Dedication

Offertory Solo—"Then shall the righteous shine" Mendelssohn
(Paul Nettinga, tenor)

Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in their heavenly Father's realm; joy on their head shall be for everlasting, and all sorrow and mourning shall flee away.

Response

Hymn 266—"A mighty Fortress is our God"

Sermon by Doctor Anderson

Text: "For our God is a consuming fire."—Hebrews 12:29.
Theme: The Forgotten Nature of God

Hymn 104—"Guide me, O Thou great Jehovah" (Hymn for the month)

Benediction

Response

The Lord bless thee and keep thee: the Lord lift up His countenance upon thee and give thee peace. The Lord make His face to shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee. Amen.

(Mr. Spach playing the service)

THIS AFTERNOON

Fourth Church is to be the host this afternoon at four o'clock to a united company of Christians from many churches. The service is a testimony to the unity of Christ's Church in a broken world. Dr. Henry Smith Lieper, American Secretary of the World Council of Churches, is to speak, and the Lord's Prayer is to be recited in the tongues of many different peoples. The Organ Recital follows the service.

GROUP MEETING

A meeting of Group Number twenty-two will be held at the Manse on Monday evening, November 2 at eight o'clock. The leaders are: Mr. and Mrs. James Wilson, III, Mrs. Paul E. Davies, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin L. Young, Miss Justine Mayer, and Miss Jennie C. Steketee.

ELECTION DAY

All members of this congregation and our friends are urged to go to the polls on this day and exercise their privilege and duty as Christian citizens. Information may be secured from the switchboard as to the recommendations of the Illinois League of Women Voters, The Better Government Association, and the Chicago Bar Association.

BUSINESS WOMAN'S CLUB PRESENTS LIEUTENANT MARY DAILY, USNR

The Business Woman's Club extends a cordial invitation to members of the church and congregation to hear Lieutenant Mary Daily on Tuesday, November 3, at 8:00 p.m. Lieutenant Daily will speak on the subject, "What is a WAVE (USNR)?"

WORKERS NEEDED FOR SURGICAL DRESSINGS!

The need for surgical dressings has increased with the rapid expansion of the American fighting forces. An urgent and immediate request is brought to women of our church to attend our unit at 7:00 p.m. Tuesday evenings and 9:30 a.m., Wednesdays in the gymnasium. Workers are asked to be regular in their attendance and to bring with them a friend to help in the work.

DELICACIES FOR THE PRESBYTERIAN HOSPITAL

During the month of November it is the privilege of the women of this church to provide jams and jellies for the ward patients of Presbyterian Hospital. Contributions should be left at the switchboard plainly marked "Presbyterian Hospital." Mrs. Arthur Wirtz is the chairman of this committee.

CHRISTMAS BOX TEA OF THE EVENING MISSIONARY SOCIETY

Members of the Evening Missionary Society and their friends are cordially invited to the home of Miss Inez Pond, 21 Bellevue Place, on Saturday afternoon, November 7, from 3:00 to 6:00 p.m., for the annual Christmas Box Tea of the Business and Professional Women. At this time, gifts of toys and money are brought to enable the society to pack boxes for Christmas gifts to the Indian children at Ganado, Arizona, and the negro children at Sylacauga, Alabama.

A BOOK FOR OUR TIME

"Invitation to Pilgrimage" is the title of Dr. John Baillie's new book. Scribners are the publishers and, believe it or not, the book sells for a dollar and a half. Members of Fourth Church will recognize some of the material as having been preached in this pulpit during Doctor Baillie's visit to the United States in 1941. The book comes out of an honest and frank mind and a broken heart. It is John Baillie's "Pilgrim's Progress," the way over which he marched to God. It is a sincere invitation to others to make the journey. Buy it, read it, mark it, and inwardly digest it. Give it to your friends for Christmas.

FROM WENDELL WILLKIE

"Many things have created this enormous reservoir 'of good will toward the American people.' At the top of the list go the hospitals schools and colleges which Americans—many of them missionaries—have founded in the far corners of the world. Many of the new leaders of old countries—men who are today running Iraq, or Turkey or China—have studied under American teachers whose only interest has been to spread knowledge. Now, in our time of crisis, we owe a great debt to these men and women who have made friends for us."

SIX RULES FOR MORALE

- 1. Carefully observe the rules of health so that you may keep mentally and physically alert. Keeping well is a patriotic duty in wartime, for every sick person is a liability and a drag on the national effort. Avoid over-fatigue and emotional tension. Observe periods of occasional rest.
2. Engage in constructive work of definite assistance to the national effort. It is dangerous to one's mental peace to be an idler. Do not give up important peacetime work for the glamor of a war job. The work of our social agencies must be continued.
3. Commit yourself and your loved ones to God's keeping and trust Him for the outcome. Worry in these matters is far more destructive than overwork.
4. Do not listen to or spread unfounded rumors. One of the most stubborn problems of the British authorities has been the occasional spread of the spirit of defeatism, which originates in one community and spreads throughout the nation. That is a service rendered for the enemy.
5. Avoid activities and people that tend to produce emotional insecurity and war jitters. Avoid overmuch listening to war bulletins on the radio or reading them in the newspapers. Associate with people who inspire confidence and resolution. Refuse to join in destructive criticism of national leaders, for this is evidence of poor morale.
6. Set apart at least ten minutes in the day for waiting upon God and drawing upon His resources of serenity and peace. Base this period of retirement and meditation on a Scripture passage, such as the 37th or the 46th Psalm.
