SUMMER CLASS

EVER SINCE the class of '39 entered Point Loma, it has striven toward one goal—to be a senior class in which Point Loma could take real pride because of its character and achievement. Point Loma, with its traditions and opportunities, inspired the class to work toward this ideal, and Mr. Swenson, the teachers, and the class sponsor, John C. Lamott, have given unfailing and invaluable aid. Each member of the class has worked to contribute in some way to the success of the group as a whole, and some have received recognition for their outstanding achievements.

The class selected its officers because of their service and leadership in past years, and so well have they executed their duties that the class is proud to be represented by them. Russel Crane has served as president of the senior class, Jack Palmer as vice-president, Ryo Morikawa as secretary, and John Kearns as treasurer.

Many seniors were on the football team which won so many victories this year, and John Kearns, Dave Cobb, and Chaffey Weiber were chosen on the All-Metro League team. Seniors of outstanding scholastic achievement were Alice Casselman, Marcella Laddon, Hollas Williams, Peggy Mayer, and Walter Gamble.

Seniors chosen on the A. S. B. Commission included James Lowell, general affairs; David Porter, finance; Jean Sherwin, girls' activities; Dorothy Davis, girls' athletics; Jack Palmer, interscholastic athletics; Jeanne Walden, historian; Barbara Cooper, clerk.

The seniors will never forget the carefree fun of swimming and picnicking at Del Mar on Ditch Day. The Prom at Hotel del Coronado was the kind that every senior dreams of. Then with the Ford Bowl as a lovely setting, impressive exercises fittingly closed the high school life of Point Loma's 1939 seniors.

The one hundred and fifty graduates have reached their goal. Now they are eagerly going forth to seek the new desires and aims that their widened horizons will open to them.
