Thy Sea is Great, Our Boats are Small

O Maker of the Mighty Deep,
Whereon our vessels fare,
Above our life's adventure keep
Thy faithful watch and care.
In Thee we trust, whate'er befall;
Thy sea is great, our boats are small.

We know not where the secret tides
Will help us or delay,
Nor where the lurking tempest hides,
Nor where the fogs are gray.
We trust in Thee, whate'er befall;
Thy sea is great, our boats are small.

When outward bound we boldly sail
And leave the friendly shore,
Let not our hearts of courage fail
Until the voyage is o'er.
We trust in Thee, whate'er befall;
Thy sea is great, our boats are small.

When homeward bound, we gladly turn,
Oh! bring us safely there,
Where harbor-lights of friendship burn
And peace is in the air.
We trust in Thee, whate'er befall;
Thy sea is great, our boats are small.

Beyond the circle of the sea,
When voyaging is past,
We seek our final port in Thee;
Oh! bring us home at last.
In Thee we trust, whate'er befall;
Thy sea is great, our boat is small.

"We speak to God before the service, God speaks to us in the service.
We speak to each other after the service."

Morning Worship, Eleven o'clock

Organ Prelude { Prelude on a Welsh Hymn Vaughan Williams
Benedictus Rowley

Doxology

Response

O come, let us sing unto the Lord: let us heartily rejoice in the strength of our salvation.
For He is the Lord our God.

Hymn 52—"Come, Thou Almighty King"

Responsive Reading—Psalm 80 (Page 673)

Anthem—"Doubt not thy Father's care" Elgar

Doubt not thy Father's care: For every grief He finds relief, And answers every prayer. Night comes: the soul is dark; All joy is dead, All gladness fled, And life has missed its mark.	Night comes: the sun is lost; He doth provide In the heavens wide The gleam of a starry host. Then Thou the wounded soul, In that sad hour, With healing power, Dost touch, and makest whole.

Scripture Lesson—The Epistle to Philemon (Page 1270)

Gloria Patri

Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth: And in Jesus Christ his only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried: he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy Catholic Church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Pastoral Prayer

Offering

Prayer of Dedication

Offertory Anthem—"King of glory, King of peace" Harris

King of glory, king of peace, I will love Thee;
And that love will never cease, I will move Thee.
Thou hast granted my request, Thou hast heard me;
Thou didst note my working breast, Thou hast spared me.
Wherefore with my utmost art I will sing Thee,
And the cream of all my heart I will bring Thee.
Though my sins against me cried, Thou didst clear me;
And alone when they replied, Thou didst hear me.
Seven whole days, not one in seven I will praise Thee
In my heart though not in Heaven I can raise Thee.
Thou grew'st soft and moist with tears, Thou relentedst,
And when justice call'd for fears Thou dissentedst.
Small it is in this poor sort to enrol Thee,
Even Eternity's too short to extol Thee.
—George Herbert

Response

PARISH NOTES

Fourth Church gladly welcomes to her pulpit today three ministers from our sister Church in the South. Rev. Albert J. Kissling has been the minister of the Riverside Church in Jacksonville, Florida since 1932. The Reverend Stuart R. Oglesby has been the pastor of the Central Church in Atlanta for many years. Rev. Robert E. Fry has recently gone to the First Church of Hollywood, Florida from the First Church of Augusta, Georgia. . . . A recent letter from Chaplain Allan A. Zaun, U. S. Naval Academy, Annapolis, Maryland, carries greetings to the members of Fourth Church. . . . Persons desiring to share in the offering for Mrs. James B. Allen and children can do so by leaving the offering specifically marked at the switchboard. . . . At the mid-summer tea and meeting of the Evening Missionary Society on Sunday evening, August 1, Mrs. Winburn T. Thomas, former missionary to Japan, will be the speaker. . . . Holy communion is to be celebrated next Sunday morning. The Session meets following the Preparatory Service Wednesday evening.

FOR THE WEEK AHEAD

When the Christian hears God's word, he finds himself judged, moved to repentance, and to faith in the forgiving Father who comes to him in Christ, who was incarnate, taught, suffered on the cross, rose again and ever lives to be his and all men's Saviour.

When the Christian puts his trust in Christ, by his Spirit, he is made aware of the un-Christian-like in himself and in his world, and is set to overcome it; and he is empowered to follow it and to lead his generation to follow it.

—Henry Sloan Coffin

A PRAYER

O God, who hast willed that the gate of mercy should stand open to the faithful; look on us, and have mercy upon us; that we, who by Thy grace are following the path of Thy will, may never turn aside from the ways of life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
