My dear Rev. Sai: -

Nov. 2, 1942

I cannot recall a time more impressed as we were yesterday at the church.

Your sermon in which you described your early period of life, your sickness, your struggle, and finally your decision to follow the life of Christian Ministry, all of these were profoundly impressive.

Then at the close of the service Mr. Natsumoto spoke of your declining a very wonderful offer from Washington, in order that you might continue to serve your flock as a shepherd. It is truly a great and wonderful service to God.

Then, when we reached home I read the printed program for the Sunday next, at which time you will be ordained.

The array of great names are in the program. These prominent personages are to participate in this ceremony of your ordination. What a wonderful occasion.

for you. It simply filled our hearts with such a joy that we shamelessly wept in tears.

Please accept our sincere and deep felt Congratulation for the Coming event.

Our God is good for we have nothing but a series of events and happenings that brings us an unending joy and happiness.

Please let us share your joy.

I have made an arrangement to make some photographs of the occasion of your ordination. Let me know just how you want me to do this; that is do you ~~you~~ wish a group picture of the people taking parts in this Ceremony after the service is over?

Whatever you wish to do I shall be at your service.

God bless you and keep you,

Sincerely,
Harry K. Shigeta
