

GATEWAY TO MINIDOKA

This is dedicated to our issei parents who triumphed over hardships with dignity. Their indomitable spirit is our legacy. Many of their footprints have faded into the sands, yet our feet feel their indentation on roads we tread.

$\frac{3}{4}$ Gonna Take a Sentimental Journey
Gonna Set My Heart at Ease
 $\frac{4}{4}$ Gonna Take a Sentimental Journey
To Renew Old Memories

FOREWORD

We graduated, 471 students strong, against a bleak, desert backdrop, where we had been transplanted from the cool of the coastal regions to the arid heat, sagebrush and powdered lava sands of Minidoka, Idaho. World War II had made us victims of racial prejudice, stemming from the greed of economic and agricultural interests to suspicions that we would commit sabotage. The Spring of 1942 saw our exodus, 110,000 people, two-thirds citizens of the United States, to ten relocation centers across our country. Minidoka became our "home".

We've gathered here today, to take a "Sentimental Journey," not to dredge up bitter memories, but to relive the happy teen-age years in Hunt High School. One thousand two hundred of us enrolled on its opening day, November 1, 1942 to be welcomed by a staff of 28 teachers. From a lack of a basic curriculum, equipment, supplies and adequate facilities, we went on to be ranked as a first-class secondary school, fully accredited by the Northwestern Association for High Schools.

We relocated to colleges and universities to serve as "ambassadors" for our people, studying and working to achieve scholastic honors. Many served in the armed forces with courage. We moved into cities, suburbs, towns and small villages working to reinstate our honor, and raised our families.

Today, we the class of 1943 and 1944, have united after a separation of 39 to 40 years. Let our tears mingle with joy as we recall the May Day Kings, Queens, Princes and Princesses on "Play Day"; the Student Body organized dances, the choirs and choruses, the Boys' and Girls' Club; the athletic "Wolverine"; the graphic reporting in the "Hunt Hi-Lites" and all the activities that marked our school years. With uplifted spirits, let us journey back in time to our yesteryears and "relive old memories."

First and Second Year Graduating Classes
 Hunt High School
 Seattle, WA 98118

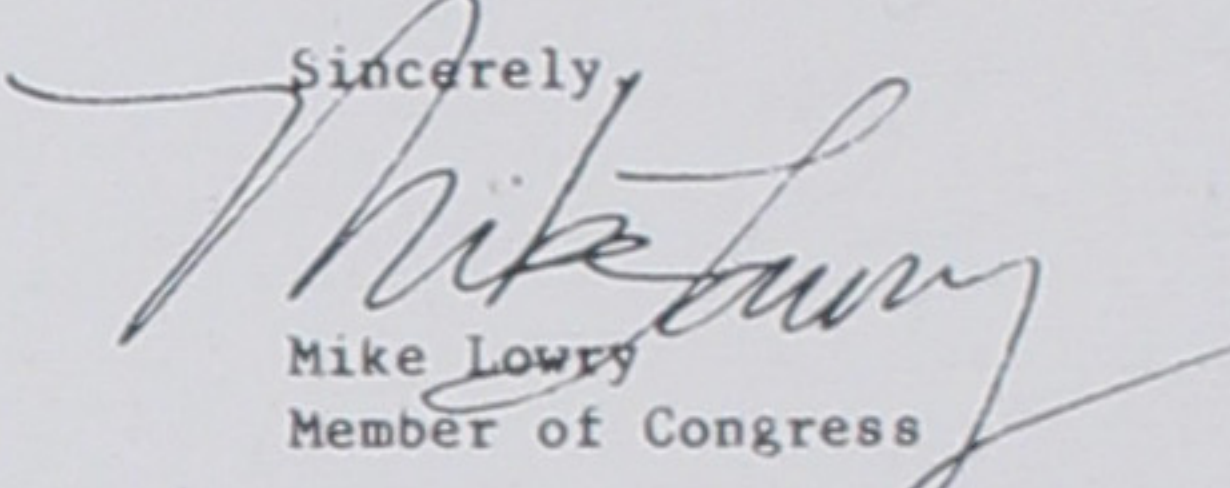

Dear Friends:

Greetings on the fortieth anniversary of the first and second year graduating high school class of Minidoka, Idaho.

It is our country's shame that young Americans of Japanese ancestry had to graduate from high school behind barbed wires. However, I am deeply impressed by the courage of Japanese Americans as well as their confidence in our system of government despite having suffered this great injustice. The response of Japanese-Americans after having their lives disrupted demonstrates an unmatched spirit of loyalty and patriotism of which you can be very proud.

Our government now has an opportunity to offer an official apology and to provide compensation for the wrongs. I hope that, by the time of your next reunion, our nation will have accepted responsibility for the internment and will have provided assurances that constitutional guarantees still stand for all citizens, regardless of race, creed or national origin. I will work toward this goal.

Best wishes for a wonderful and joyous meeting of old friends.

Sincerely,

 Mike Lowry
 Member of Congress

Office Of The Mayor
 City of Seattle

Charles Royer, Mayor

Greetings:

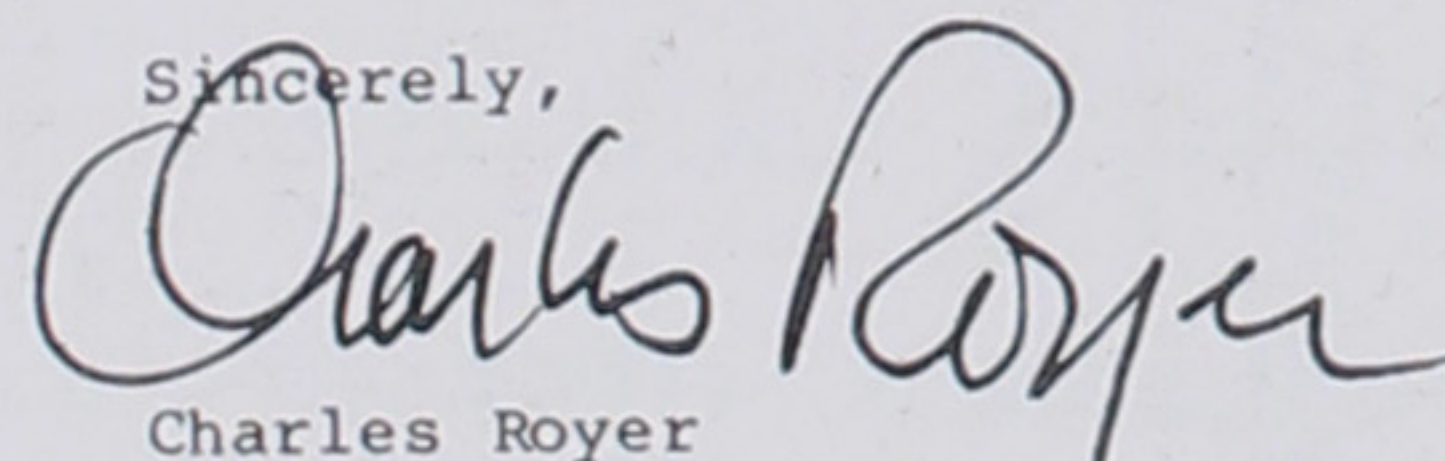

I take great pleasure in welcoming the participants of the 40th year reunion of Japanese-American graduates of Hunt High School, classes of 1943 and 1944.

I know that many of you were attending Seattle schools until World War II began, when you were sent to the Puyallup Fairgrounds and later to the Minidoka Relocation Camp. Seattle has changed dramatically and is now the "most livable" city in America. While you are here, I hope you renew old friendships and develop new memories to cherish.

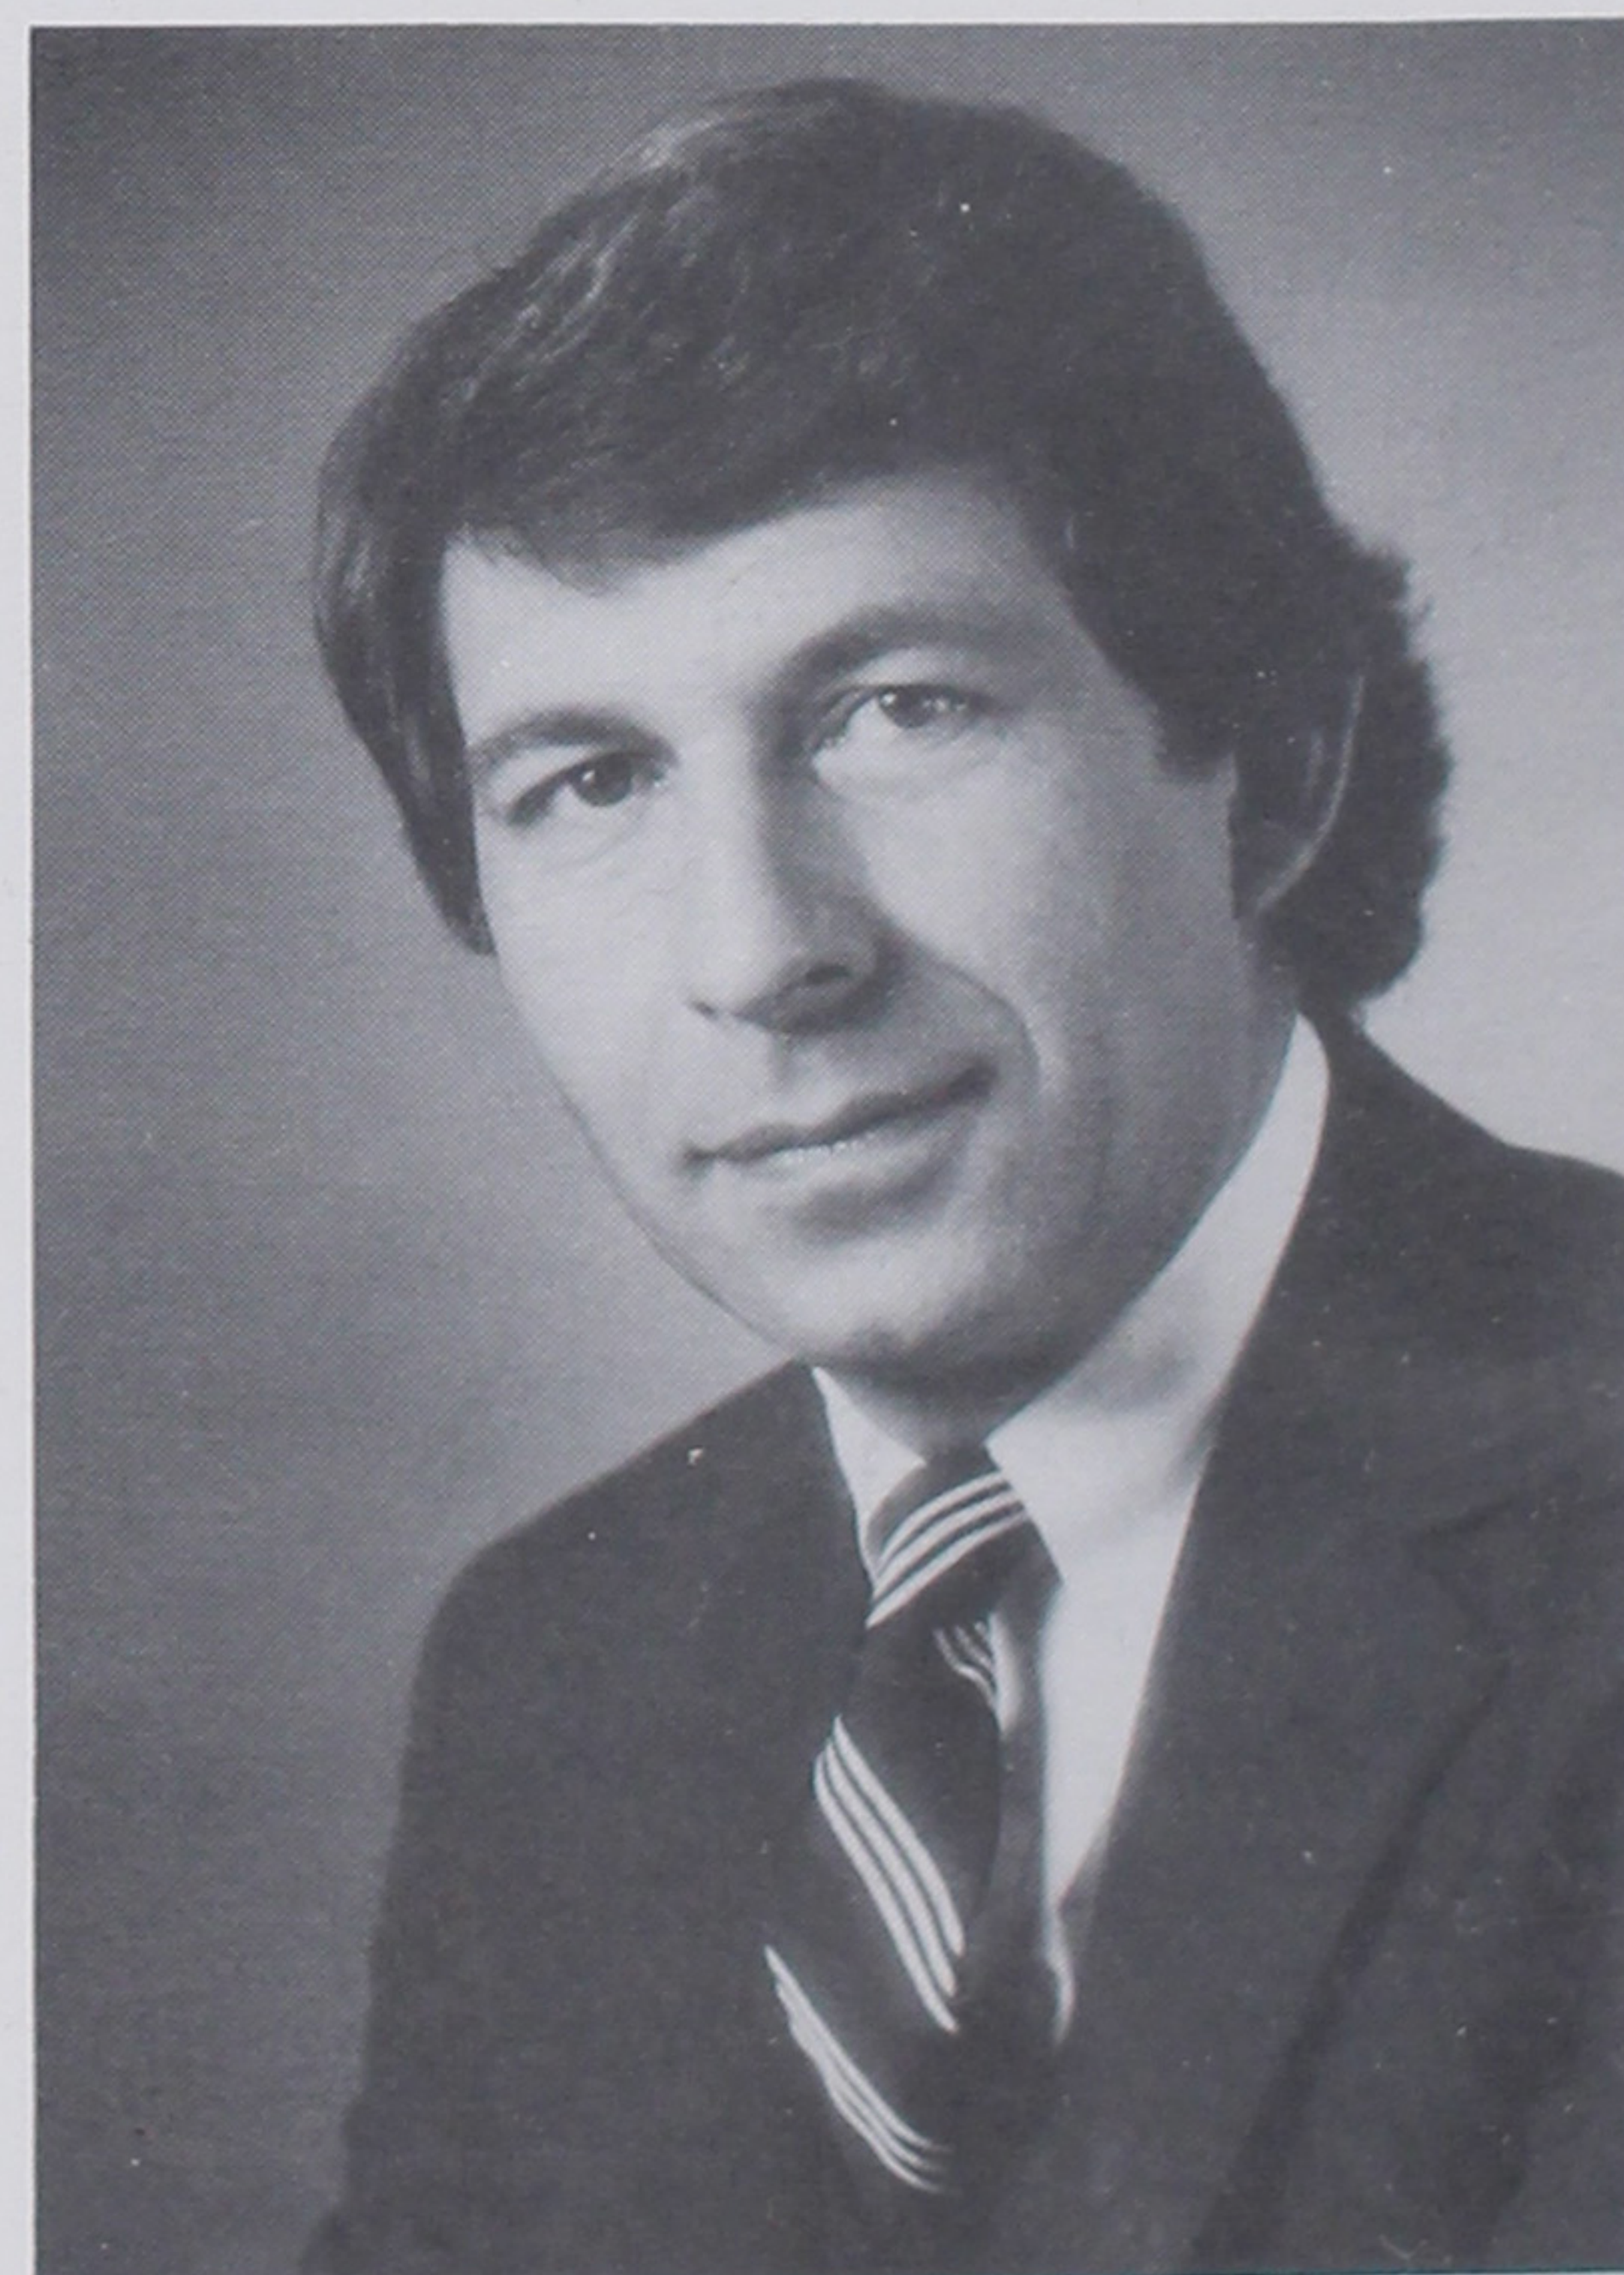

Our city is lively, friendly, and full of great places in which to wander, look, shop, eat, and enjoy the surroundings. In between reunion activities, I hope you'll get a chance to explore the waterfront, Seattle Aquarium, Seattle Center, Woodland Park Zoo, the Pike Place Market, Pioneer Square, and, of course, Nihonmachi in the International District.

Thank you for choosing Seattle as the site for your reunion. My best wishes for a successful gathering.

Sincerely,

 Charles Royer

and
Governor
JOHN SPELLMAN

Welcome to the 40th anniversary of the first graduating class of Hunt High. What an exciting and inspirational experience it will be to see and reminisce with members of that class who have made successful careers in many parts of this great country. It is a distinct honor to be invited to share this experience with you in Seattle.

OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

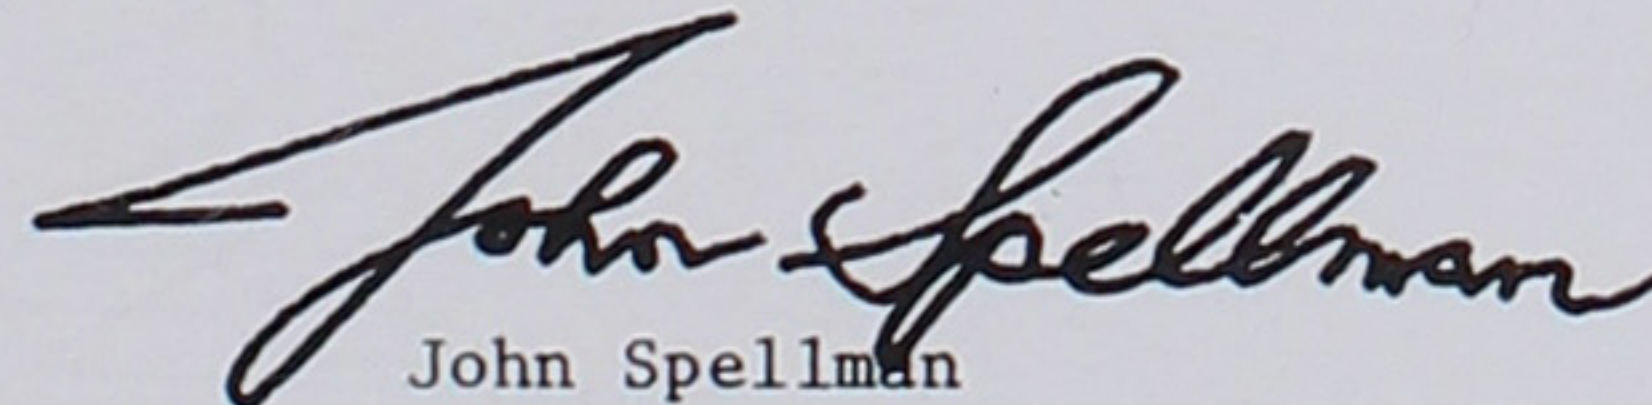

A Message From the Governor

I am delighted to extend greetings to Hunt High School Classes of '43 and '44 on the occasion of your 40-year reunion to be held in Seattle, Washington, on July 23 and 24, 1983.

Many Americans deeply regret the circumstances that caused you and so many other young people to graduate from high school under adverse conditions. I hope that, in spite of that grim background, your reunion evokes fond memories of lasting friendships.

Please accept my best wishes for an enjoyable Class Reunion and for success in your future endeavors.

Sincerely,

John Spellman
Governor

IDAHO

Away beyond the hills of Idaho,
Where yawning canyons greet the sun,
As it smiles above the trees in Idaho
To say another day is done.

Warm summer winds toss the waving grains
Calling me back to my home again.
To dream sweet memories of long ago,
Beyond the hills in Idaho.

SENTIMENTAL JOURNEY

Gonna take a sentimental journey,
Gonna set my heart at ease,
Gonna take a sentimental journey,
To renew old memories.

Got my bag, I got my reservation,
Spent each dime I could afford,
Like a child in wild anticipation,
Long to hear that "All Aboard".

Seven, that's the time we leave at seven,
I'll be waiting there in heaven,
Counting every mile of railroad track,
That leads me back.

Never knew my heart could be so yearny,
Why did I decide to roam,
Gonna take a sentimental journey,
Sentimental journey home.

DON'T FENCE ME IN

Oh, give me land, lots of land, under starry skies above, Don't fence me in . . .
Let me ride through the wide open country that I love, Don't fence me in . . .
Let me be by myself in the evening breeze, Listen to the murmers of the cottonwood trees,
Send me off forever, but I ask you please, Don't fence me in.
Just turn me loose, let me straddle my old saddle underneath the western skies,
On my cayuse, let me wander over yonder, till I see the mountains rise.
I want to ride to the ridge where the West commences,
Gaze at the moon, till I lose my senses,
Can't look at hobbles and I can't stand fences, Don't fence me in.

SENTIMENTAL JOURNEY

We graduates of '43 and '44 meet once more.

*Our voices are heavier with experience.
Lines are sketched deeper on our skins.
Our heads feel intrusion of gray hairs.*

We reminisce.

*SENTIMENTAL JOURNEY takes us back to Minidoka
Forty years ago.*

We feel desert dust.

It accompanies our food.

Each day we endure the wind's many moods.

It picks up dust and gently blankets us.

Then turns dust into a thousand darting needles.

Encircling, capturing, suffocating our bodies and our souls.

Our leg muscles grow sturdy and strong.

We twist and we pivot,

Fighting wind and dust,

Walking in the ooze of mud,

Walking on slippery snow.

Outside we go.

Walking a block or more from our one-room quarters.

To eat our meals,

To the latrine,

To take showers,

To drink water.

The Idaho sun sends scorching rays,

Not one tree to offer shade

Only sagebrush shades our feet.

The cold penetrates.

Wind, crawling beneath our coats, reaches our skin,

We rush indoors to our one-room quarters

To embrace the pot-belly stove.

The barbed wire fence.

Soldiers in watchtowers

Enunciate our imprisonment.

Our wounds we bury deep within our souls

We continue to dream and hope

"Shikkari" (bear up) "Gaman" (forbear) seep from within us.

For ours is a heritage of our Issei parentage.

They labored silently.

Long hours stretched dollars to nurture family needs.

They send children to bed with "yutampos" (hot water bottles)

In hand-sewn flannel coverings, protecting their tender skins.

They pulled back shoulders.

Blinked away tears when forced from their home,

Leaving behind all that would not squeeze into two suitcases

Allowed each member of the family.

Our spirit to learn.

Dedicated teachers.

Made Hunt High School comparable to others on the outside.

We had the "Hunt Hi-lites", the pen clubs, Junior Red Cross,

"King of the Day", the Mardi Gras queens.

We had the Wolverine with all sport activities.

Instead of auditoriums and spacious rooms,

We had one-room barracks, and we were held inside.

We gather today in 1983.

Our fingers entwine.

We embrace.

Our faces reflect the smile of our souls.

We relive our days at Hunt High as teenagers, remembering

When girls wore bobby sox with wooden shoes and dirndl skirt.

Boys put grease on hair for stylish pompadours,

And jitterbugged on "spangled" mess hall floors

To the music of Glenn Miller.

We talk about our children.

We talk about golfing, bowling, and fishing,

We talk about our careers.

Like our Issei parents

We do not share our wounds of our internment.

We keep them buried in our souls.

Our feet glide, making half circles on the floor

Bodies swing and sway

To the music of SENTIMENTAL JOURNEY,

As we did so long ago.

At the end of this reunion

Our fingers entwine

We will regret that

We must depart again.
