

You are light

Oh Light who condescended to enter my heart for a brief while and show me how meaningful life is, ~~then do not~~ ~~look yourself out~~ and leave me again in the darkness of despair - the obscurity and confusion of darkness, the darkness of despair, but return again and warm me that I may live again and

I watched.

Yesterday

I ~~loved~~ walked with God disdainful of Caesar

Napoleon I disdained, Caesar I would not

I loved and was hopeful that perhaps my love would be returned
- into peace I hope

Robert Paulin -

I am back on the old ground every night also again

September 1, 1943
10:20 p.m.

Night falls -

Life -

Life

To go through life -

Mirth ~~is not~~ does not necessarily involve joy -

Night falls at last

And I am alone in darkness

Night falls & I am alone ~~and~~

In darkness the darkness of despair -

Yesterday I lived

For one lives by hope

~~And without hope we live~~
