1st Lt. Paul J. Jasper

Asst Director

Public Relation Branch

H. Benj. Harrison, Indiana

My dear Lt. Jasper:

I wrote you a letter explaining my school education in Bookkeeping field. Since I haven't received any answer to my letter and my husband hasn't heard from you, maybe that job is already filled by somebody else.

My husband asked me to write to you again and ask you about the work I'm doing so.

I am able to do office work or domestic work. I'm willing and would like to learn as I go along in any line of work I'm asked to do. I'm not praising myself but I'm the type that will see the thing through to the end if my mind is set on it. In all my work up to now, I've always stuck it out to the end when my employer left the country or on account of evacuation.

Please let me know what became of the Bookkeeping job that was opened. If it's too much trouble to notify me, then please notify my husband, Pvt. James Koshina,

Yours very truly,
