Dear Jeanne,

Glad to hear your things fitted you.
So mother's fitted too, that's good.

So it's really getting cold there in camp.
Well it's not so warm here either. But me I'd rather have a it real cold than hot.
How about you? Although the sun does I feel very good. - Too bad about the damn dust, huh? Well I guess it can't be helped.

Hey, you're way ahead of me now in dancing for I don't know how to jitter-bug, yet. I think I'm growing too old for that anyway. But if you like it keep it up. Maybe my girl Elma will teach me one of these days. Or maybe I'll have to learn from you.

By the way we bought you some candy and will send it as soon as possible. I've got them all mixed too so hope you like it. I had to go way out just to buy it. Because stores around town didn't have so much assortment. It's for all of you so don't fight over it, for there's enough for you all.

Keep up your good school work for over

I've got your heart already pickled out.
~~Let's~~ just make sure you keep getting those good grades. — But at the same time have fun too.

Well take it easy Jeanne and be good!
Always,

Bob

P.S. I took a picture when I first came out and I'll send it to you all.
