

This past year I have been directing the design & rearing of the vestment material I am wearing. The cloth is the famous Nishijin Teori-land-woolen throughout. I am now passing it over to business men to market. It may help Japan to sell her silk.