BROTHERHOOD HOUSE. Rev. Tsutomu Fukuyama, an American of Japanese ancestry, has received a citation from the Cosmopolitan Club of Denver, Colo., for his splendid contribution to interracial understanding in that city. Mr. Fukuyama conceived the idea of Brotherhood House—an interracial home where the ideals of Christian brotherhood could be made concrete. Founded during the war, through the cooperation of the American Baptist Home Mission Society and the Colorado Baptist Convention, it is now the home of Japanese-Americans, Negroes and Caucasians.

Fukuyama to Study For Pastorate; Leaves Soon for Calif.
 WINSLOW, Wash., Aug. 3.—A special service honoring Tsutomu Fukuyama, who graduated with high honors from Seattle Pacific College, was held last Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Reed by the members of the local church which included the BYPU, the Crusaders and the Lighthouse groups.
 Fukuyama plans to leave the second week of August for the Bekreley Divinity School, a Baptist affiliate. He expects to stop at San Francisco to witness the World's Fair.
 Miss Florence Itoh of Three Forks, Montana, at present residing in Seattle, offered a few vocal selections. Others from Seattle were the Misses McCollough, Rose Yamasaki and Frank Uyeno.
