

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

WAR RELOCATION AUTHORITY
Midland Savings Building
Denver 2, Colorado
November 4, 1944

Closing Grand Junction, Colorado WRA Office

Effective November 30, 1944 the relocation office of the War Relocation Authority in Grand Junction will be closed.

Continued Service

After this date all business formerly carried on through the Grand Junction office will be handled by the Denver office.

Who to Contact

Write:

Charles F. Miller
Relocation Supervisor
War Relocation Authority
Midland Savings Building
Denver 2, Colorado

Visits to Grand Junction

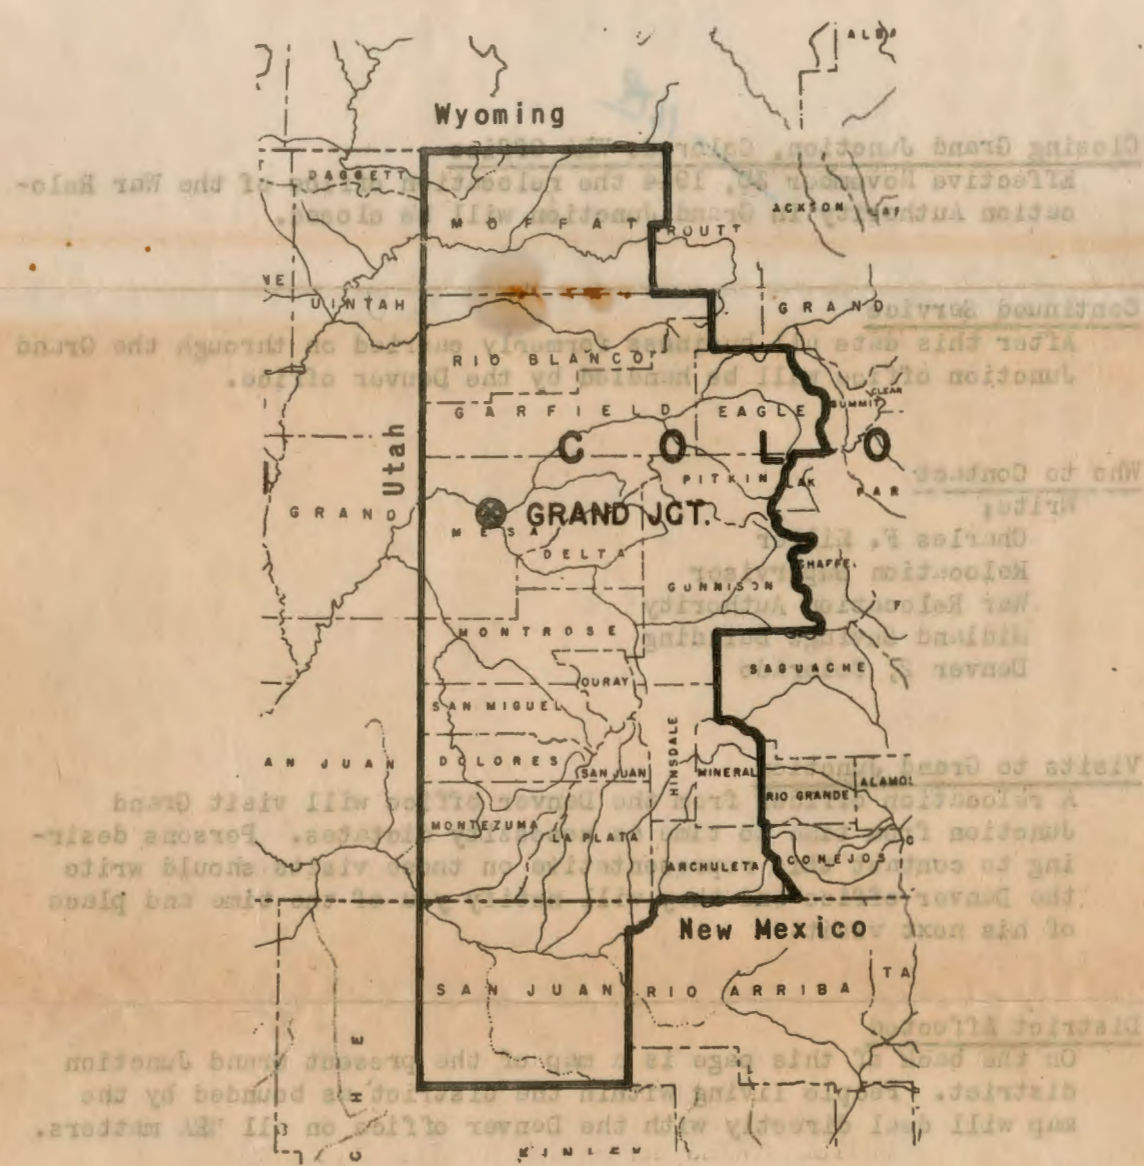

A relocation officer from the Denver office will visit Grand Junction from time to time as necessity dictates. Persons desiring to contact this representative on these visits should write the Denver office and they will notify you of the time and place of his next visit.

District Affected

On the back of this page is a map of the present Grand Junction district. People living within the district as bounded by the map will deal directly with the Denver office on all WRA matters.

Charles F. Miller
Relocation Supervisor

WAR RELOCATION AUTHORITY
Midland Savings Building
Denver 2, Colorado
November 4, 1944

Continued service...
 After this date...
 Junction of...
 Who to Contact...
 Charles P. Miller...
 War Relocation...
 Midland...
 Denver...
 Visit to Grand...
 A relocation...
 Junction of...
 ing to count...
 the Denver... of his next...
 District Al...
 On the bac... district. The...
 map will del...
 with the Denver office on all matters.

Charles P. Miller
 Charles P. Miller
 Relocation Supervisor