Dear Mr. Takeda:

We have been informed by the Post Office of your new address as above, which we will place on your account.

Your dividend checks, however, are being held by us until we are furnished with information concerning the status of your nationality.

If you are an American Citizen, a guarantee to that effect from your Bank will permit us to forward the checks we hold and note our records so that future dividends will be forwarded without delay. If you are not an American Citizen, then in order to send the checks to you, we will require a guarantee to the effect that you are a General License National pursuant to General License No. 68-A.

Yours very truly,

F. E. Reed,
Assistant Secretary
