Dear David:

A note of appreciation for your ^{so}generously crediting me with the success of the Ladies efforts in New England. As we all know, in Japanese style, we accomplished our goals through teamwork.

I early recognized my limitations as a public figure, for as long as we had one coator in the family (namely, my sister Grace Uyehara) I knew I had to look elsewhere for my role. It has long been as a catalyst making sure that things happened and to look for those who could best be responsible to lead. Thus you, Hay, Reiko, and Gary were brought into the group.

Each of you was articulate and well organized in your thinking and with little practice could present to the public the need for reform. Without Gary's interest in journalism and keeping good records and writing excellent reports, the campaign would have faltered. Eij Suyama's legal interpretation kept us informed.

So a hearty round of applause should have gone to everyone who helped us achieve an outstanding vote from D.C. in Congress.

This is my applause to you for your ^(T.V.) TV appearances, students you may have allowed to interview you as well as newspapers and assuming the presidency to get ^{started again in Dad England} J.A.C.
