

UNIVERSITY

UC

CITY

ADULT EVENING SCHOOL

Education for Adults

SPRING TERM - 1969

11-WEEKS

BEGINS JANUARY 27

COOKING SKILLS — 451

CLASS BEGINS FEBRUARY 5

MADIE STROUD

Planned to give training in the basic skills of cooking by preparing a variety of interesting and exciting foods. Emphasis on the planning and serving of meals to meet the nutritional requirements of the family.

WEDNESDAY 7:30-9:30	U.C. Resident	$17.00
HANLEY 125	Non-Resident	$18.00
Class Limit 24

GOURMET COOKING — 454 MELANIE FATHMAN

Presentations of the foods of European and Mediterranean countries are all well within the capacities and budget of the average homemaker, as she learns to prepare gourmet food with more love than money.

Learn the techniques of preparing delightful hors d'oeuvres, breads, entrees, pastries and desserts.

This demonstration class will start you on the rewarding road to creative and dramatic cookery.

TUESDAY 7:30-9:30	U.C. Resident	$20.00*
HANLEY 125	Non-Resident	$21.00*
Class Limit 15

* includes cost of foods used

ORIENTAL COOKING — 474 MELANIE FATHMAN

Timing and an aesthetic sense are the necessary skills for a successful dinner party from the East. Complete menus, customs and food presentation from the other side of the world will make you an inventor of memorable evenings.

Countries covered will be — China, Japan, Korea, Indonesia, Hawaii, India, Pakistan, the Philippines, and the Middle East.

WEDNESDAY 7:30-9:30	U.C. Resident	$20.00*
SENIOR 305	Non-Resident	$21.00*
Class Limit 20

* includes cost of foods used

FLOWER ARRANGING — 457 SHOSUI SAKAHARA

Japanese and American arrangements, suitable for any type home, using your own accessories. Arrangements with artistic branches; how to trim and thin. Decorating with house plants; their care. Some work with Bonsai (miniature trees).

Most of the time will be devoted to active class participation.

TUESDAY 7:30-9:30	U.C. Resident	$14.00
HANLEY Center Cafeteria	Non-Resident	$15.00
Class Limit 15

INTERIOR DECORATING — 456KATHLEEN A. CREGER, A.I.D.
Interior Decorator

Sound principles to accentuate the importance and value of interior decor in both home and commercial places. How to interpret the subject to fit your own personality by use of color and scale. Rules concerning windows, floors, furniture trends and accessories.

MONDAY 7:30-9:30	U.C. Resident	$14.00
HANLEY Center Cafeteria	Non-Resident	$15.00

KNITTING — 458MILDRED STUMBORG
Mary's Knitting Shop

Group instruction for beginners covering the fundamentals of knitting. Do not bring any materials to first class.

MONDAY 7:30-9:30	U.C. Resident	$14.00
HANLEY Library	Non-Resident	$15.00

KNITTING—Continuation — 462 MARY BARNES
Mary's Knitting Shop

For those who know the basic fundamentals. How to Knit to Fit, (including some Pattern Drafting and Charting,) blocking, assembling and finishing knitted garments. Do not bring any materials to first class.

TUESDAY 7:30-9:30	U.C. Resident	$14.00
HANLEY Library	Non-Resident	$15.00
Class Limit 20

SEWING—Elementary — 460

Planned to give a beginner training in skills basic to all sewing, including the use of sewing machine; use and adjustment of simple patterns; selection of suitable material, and the construction of a simple garment based on individual requirements.

MONDAY 7:30-9:30	U.C. Resident	$14.00
	Non-Resident	$15.00
Sect. 1—SENIOR 223—KAREN MEYERS
Sect. 2—BRITTANY 116—CAROL FURNAS

TUESDAY 7:30-9:30	Sect. 3—SENIOR 223—MARY BETH BRUEGGESTRAUSS
-------------------	---	--

WEDNESDAY 7:30-9:30	Sect. 4—HANLEY 225—DOROTHY SUNDBROM
Each Section Limited to 15		