Dear Mom and Pop,

I just received three of your letters.
It was Friday's, Saturday's and Sunday's.

You asked why the address was different when you sent the telegram. Well, you're not supposed to know where I am, so the government has a special number for such things. I think I told you that I'm in Camp Shanks. I'm sending this letter from New York today so the censors won't see it.

I'm going out this afternoon until midnight.

I'm making this letter short because I'm getting ready to go.

I'll tell you about it when I come back.

Jack
