

Sunday
Evening

April 15, 1945

Dear Mom and Pop,

I guess you know by now how lucky I am when it comes to detail. Well, our tent pulled KP today. I helped out in the kitchen so it was pretty easy. All I did was sweep the place up and slice bread.

I took a clipping from today's Sunday paper about the 442nd. I thought it amusing.

I haven't too much to write about. I hope you received the paper and money I sent home.

We're on regular training so I guess we'll be pretty busy next ~~to~~ week. Well, at least we'll have something to do. No letters come in yet so I'm writing. I hope I get them soon.

I'm going to the low row so I'll write again tomorrow
Tad

COALS TO Newcastle Department: The 442nd Infantry Regiment, whose Nisei infantrymen won two Presidential Citations and have fought in the most bitter battles of Italy and France, just received 50 pamphlets from the Army with a note that they should be passed around to provide a few helpful hints. The pamphlets are titled Combat Lessons.
