Monday 9:20PM Sept 25, 1944

Dear Mom and Pop,

I received your Sept 23rd letter today. It left there the 24th so it only took one day to come here. Pretty fast. I also received a letter from Bent Jomi. I have to write to her yet. He also gave me Bob's address, so I'm writing to him too. So Bob's finally in Italy, eh? Well, I hope he gets along OK.

We were out all day today in the woods. We had classes in scouting and patrolling, how to hide and cover, how to fall, and many, many other things.

Gee, was it funny. Ted and I went to get a haircut tonight, and Ted got a GI haircut. I almost had a fit when I saw him later. After what happened to Ted, I told the father to just take a little off the top.

I don't think that father doesn't know what little means, because he sure took a lot off.

I still have to write to Jomi and Bob so I'll make this letter short.

I'll write again tomorrow

God
