Dear Mom and Pop,

Well, here I am again. Didn't do much today. I usually don't do anything anyway. I got a letter from Joni and also one from Grandpa. I got your letters too. Two today.

Boy, don't forget to send Grandpa some of the pictures I took in Italy.

Joni said something so funny in her letter that I couldn't stop laughing for a while. She said that Hird is still afraid of dogs and that there's a big dog in their flock. She said Hird runs like the devil every time he sees the dog. I could just picture Hird trying to run fast.

You said that To-char is very interested in the stamps I sent him. I don't know if I can get German stamps
but I'll send some more Italian stamps
soon.

I'm sending a request again. I'd like to have some magazines again. I haven't received any package since the last time when I got the braided cap and the box of candy and stuff. You sure did a nice job sewing the braid on.

I REQUEST YOU TO SEND ME
SOME MAGAZINES.

Well, this is a few call for today no more tomorrow
