Dear Mom and Pop,

I didn't get any letters from you today but I got one package. It had magazines, a box of M Washington candy and a bottle of hair tonic. Thanks very much. I was kind of hoping I'd get some magazines soon. The hair tonic is just the kind I meant.

I guess I'm going to get paid again. I don't know when. I thought it might be today but it wasn't.

I did the usual thing today. Nothing different ever happens out here.

I'm writing another request down.
I wish I could think of something else, but I don't need anything.
Just send what you like.

I REQUEST You To SEND Me SOME MAGAZINES.

I thought it was going to rain today but it didn't. It was hot and very sultry but no rain.

Well, I guess this is about all for today so more again

Jack
