Dear Mom and Pop,

Nothing much again today. We helped out at the hospital in the morning and in the afternoon we went to classes.

I didn't go into town last night because we had a movie in camp. Sometimes we go to town and go to the Italian Theater. They sometimes have American pictures with American or English dialogue. Even if the sound is Italian nine out of ten films are American. Most of them are pretty old too. Last time we saw Dorothy Lamour and Jon Hall in "Hurricane". It was Italian dialogue, but we can understand it a little anyway.

Before I started this letter, I was putting a piece of celluloid over the blue cloth of my citation sledge so it wouldn't get dirty.

Well, this is about all for now
so more tomorrow

Ted

By the way, "oggi" means today
