Dear Mom and Pop,

I went to the hospital in Pisa for a physical exam yesterday. Like usual, they found nothing wrong. I wandered around town after and I saw a stamp shop so I went in. They showed me a lot of stamps and I got so interested I bought a little over $5 worth before I left.

We have a couple of "Ladujin" friends here and they have a command car so we ride all over every day. At nights, just the four of us go to Leghorn to see a movie. They have a show for soldiers there. Last night we saw the new version of "Of Human Bondage".

Well, this is all for today and see tomorrow
