Dear Mom and Pop,

We got our PX yesterday. I bought a new wallet for $1.50. It'll cost around $4 or $5 back home. It has a zipper around it. I wanted to get a good pen too but they didn't have any.

We saw a movie in camp last night. The picture was "A Bell for Adano". It's a good picture. It's about Italy - maybe you've seen it already.

Boy, I'd like to know what's happening to my letters. I still haven't received them yet.

I think we'll be leaving next week for Pisa. We'll finish school there. I have about 2 more weeks to go.

Well, this is about all for today
so more tomorrow
